

September 10, 2022
9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Immaculate Conception,
Durham
Fellowship Hall &
Gymnasium

Register in advance by September 6th at Eventbrite

[<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/come-god-has-a-story-to-tell-us-tickets-382910013157>]

Come! God has a story to tell us!

What are the stories we hear around us each day?
The stories we tell ourselves?
The stories that have the power to transform our lives?

Stories we've heard or lived over the past three years have impacted our lives, weighed heavily on our hearts. They've challenged and distracted us, disturbed our peace of mind. But, God has a Story to tell us that will lift our spirits, enlighten and heal what threatens to separate us. It is a story the can give us vision for our days, draw us together in community and help us turn in love to address the needs of our world.

The St. Mary Magdalene Chapter of the Lay Dominicans of Raleigh, NC along with Fr. Jude Siciliano invite you to a mini-retreat day where we can encounter the Word of God in our daily lives.

Come hear what God has to say through the stories that can transform our lives.

Find your story in God's Story!

Questions?
Please contact
Lisa Marie at Immarenco@aol.com

Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided.

No charge for the retreat day,
but donations to help defray cost and Fr. Jude's travel will be gratefully accepted.

Bring Your Bibles!

Fr. Jude Siciliano, OP from Dominican Priory Irving TX has taught homiletics at the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley, CA. He is a former president of the Catholic Association of Teachers of Homiletics, a member of People of Faith Against the Death Penalty, and continues to work with prisoners in North Carolina and Texas. He is the religious assistant to the St. Mary Magdalene Lay Dominicans of Raleigh.